

DEMOCRATIC SWEEP.

Mr. Cleveland's Majority Overwhelming.

IT WAS A MIGHTY AVALANCHE

Of the People's Votes That Vanquished Republicanism.

ILLINOIS CERTAINLY DEMOCRATIC.

Indiana Very Close With Chances In Favor of the Democrats.

BOTH CONNECTICUT AND NEW JERSEY

Safe for Cleveland and the State Tickets by Good Majorities.

ALSO WISCONSIN AND CALIFORNIA

Have Come Over Into the Democratic Column—Mr. Cleveland's Plurality in the Electoral College Will be the Largest in Twenty Years, Probably Reaching 280.—The Republican National Leaders Die Hard—How the Senate and House of Representatives will Stand.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Special.—Cleveland's exact majority in the State of Connecticut is 5,320. The Democratic electoral vote stands at 270, including the votes from Michigan, with a fair chance that nine votes of California will be added. Mr. Harrity, as chairman of the National Committee, and Mr. Dickinson, as chairman of the National Campaign Committee, have respectively received a great number of dispatches of congratulation. They are so numerous that individual response is entirely impracticable. They, with the other members of the Campaign Committee, make general tender of their thanks for the compliments paid to them. Mr. Harrity desires to make special acknowledgment of those from Pennsylvania, and Mr. Dickinson from those from the West and Northwest, and Mr. Smalley and Mr. Quincy for those from New England. Mr. Wallace, of the State of Washington, who has had special charge of the States west of the Missouri, is gratified by the results in that section, which confirmed and even surpassed his predictions. The following correspondence explains itself:

NEW YORK, Nov. 9th, 3 A. M. Hon. Richard Croker, Tammany Hall: I cannot return without expressing to you my sincere and profound appreciation of your untiring devotion to the National ticket, and of your sleepless vigilance and enthusiastic, earnest and painstaking care of its interest throughout the campaign, extending from the nomination at Chicago to this, its triumphant close.

I know well that the result, so largely due to you and loyal Tammany Hall, gives to you as much as to any man in the United States unalloyed pleasure, and I congratulate you. (Signed) DON M. DICKINSON, Chairman Democratic Campaign Committee.

TAMMANY HALL, NEW YORK, November 5, 1892. To Hon. Don M. Dickinson: My Dear Mr. Dickinson—Your very kind telegram was received, and you will please accept my sincere thanks for the very kind expressions contained therein. In response I desire to tender to you my sincere congratulations on the happy result of yesterday's ballots, and in which we all participated in bringing about the election of your candidate, and for which your great and untiring zeal and services must be appreciated, not alone by Messrs. Cleveland and Stevenson but also by the great mass of the people of this, our glorious country.

With assurances of esteem and best wishes, I am, sincerely yours, (Signed) RICHARD CROKER. The following has been issued from Democratic headquarters to-night: "Our advice justify the statement that of the electoral votes of Wisconsin and Illinois, in addition to those from New York, New Jersey, Indiana and Connecticut, and those from the Southern States, will be cast for Cleveland and Stevenson. The indications are that California has also gone Democratic, thus giving Cleveland and Stevenson not less than 278 electoral votes. It is a glorious victory, and the people of the country are entitled to the warmest congratulations. (Signed) "W. F. HARRITY."

Grover Cleveland has been elected President, and the indications are that his plurality in the electoral college will be the largest in twenty years. His majority of the popular vote is much greater than it was eight years ago. While the returns from the Western States are not yet complete, there is enough to know that Mr. Cleveland has Southern States ... New York ... New Jersey ... Connecticut ... Indiana ... Illinois ... Wisconsin ... Michigan ... California ... Wyoming ...

Total ... This is 58 more electoral votes than are necessary to a choice and 10 more than are necessary to throw the election into the House of Representatives. Weaver has carried several of the Western States that were formerly strongly Republican, and the indications are that Harrison will not get more than 141 or 142 votes in the electoral college. Cleveland's plurality in this State is 44,000. His plurality in the State is 44,000. It is more than 20,000 in Kings county and it is more than 20,000 in Kings county. The result in Kings county is a surprise, as the Democratic managers there had claimed only 10,000 to 20,000 plurality. There were heavy Democratic gains in some of the strongest Republican counties in the interior of the State. The Democratic have elected a good majority of the assemblymen in this State, which insures the election of a Democrat to the United States Senate.

OHIO PROBABLY DEMOCRATIC.

What Next?—Pennsylvania is About All Left for Harrison.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 9.—Late returns reveal the fact that the result is rather close. The Democratic electors have a lead of over 70 plurality, with four counties to hear from. Three of these are Democratic, the fourth is Republican. COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 9.—The situation in Ohio grows interesting and exciting with the result in doubt. The Democratic committee has reports from the county chairmen of 24 counties, which show a net Democratic gain for Cleveland of 1,440. This leaves 55 counties to hear from. At the same ratio of increase, the State will go Democratic, but the Republicans hope for a different result.

At midnight the Democrats claim the State for the Cleveland electors, with a plurality ranging from 1,000 to 1,500. The Republicans concede that it is very close, and will require the official count to decide. Both headquarters have closed for the night.

DELEWARE CLAIMS KANSAS.

TOPEKA, KAN., Nov. 9.—The result of the election in Kansas is still in doubt. Returns are coming in very slowly. Both committees are claiming a victory, neither conceding anything to the other. The Republican committee alone has arrangements for receiving definite returns. At 11 o'clock 380 out of 2,100 precincts had been heard from, showing a total of 71,727 votes, of which the Republican State electoral tickets have a majority of 5,321. This vote has been compared with the Republican poll of the State, which shows a total vote of 20,500. If the returns continue to come in showing the same relative Republican gains, the Republican majority will be about 15,000. The Republicans still claim the election of seven of the eight congressmen certain, and a majority of the Legislature. Jerry Simpson, according to Republican figures, is certainly beaten in the Seventh district.

TOPEKA, KAN., Nov. 9.—The Republican State central committee claim 5,000 Republican majority in Kansas, while the chairman of the Populists' committee claims the majority for the Populists. State ticket, all congressmen and a majority in the coming State Legislature. Returns are coming in very slowly.

INDIANA

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 9.—The result in Indiana was not a surprise. The Democratic managers have been confident of the State for more than a month. The Republicans made a hard fight to save Harrison in his own State, but the indications are that the majority for Cleveland and Stevenson will reach 10,000. The Democrats will also control the Legislature.

Indiana was carried by Harrison and Morton four years ago. Chairman Taggart, of the Democratic committee, claims 11 out of the 13 congressmen.

Privately the Republicans admitted that they have been routed, ascribing the defeat to the radical ground taken by the party on the tariff. Seventy-one out of 92 counties give Cleveland a lead of 5,380. CALIFORNIA. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Nov. 9.—According to returns counted thus far, Cleveland will have a plurality in this city of about 7,000. The returns are more to be expected with positively which electoral ticket has carried the State, but the indications are that Cleveland's plurality in this city will be overcome by Harrison's plurality in other parts of the State, and that the latter will probably carry the State by a plurality considerably less than that of four years ago. Weaver's vote was somewhat larger than was estimated by the managers of both the leading political parties, and cut into the Republican in some counties much heavier than it did into the Democratic strength. The Legislature is still in doubt, but will probably be Republican on joint ballot.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Nov. 9.—Six hundred and seventy precincts out of 1,241, outside of San Francisco, give Harrison 23,307; Cleveland, 24,738; Weaver, 7,909.

WYOMING WINS IN THE WEST.

OMAHA, NEB., Nov. 9.—Nebraska returns are still fragmentary. Weaver electors will carry the State by over 5,000 majority. Crouse (Rep.), for Governor, will probably get 5,000 plurality; also, John W. Aldrich, for Lieutenant-Governor. The balance of the State ticket will probably be mixed and close, with chances favoring the Republicans. The Republicans will elect two out of six congressmen, and possibly three. Gains for Republicans, as compared with two years ago, are being reported. Democrats gains are equally noticeable. The result in any way from the decisive Democratic victory in the State of Illinois on national or State tickets. Conservative men of all parties now generally agree that the Democratic plurality in Illinois will be apparently 10,000.

All indications point to the carrying of the State by Cleveland and Stevenson by a plurality of from $500 to $1,000. The entire Democratic State ticket is elected, and the Democrats have a majority of the congressional delegation, and have apparently gained control of both branches of the State Legislature. It is probable that the Democrats will retain their majority in the congressional delegation. There is no doubt of the election of two Democratic candidates for Congress at large.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The National and State tickets have a Democratic majority estimated at 20,000 to 25,000. The Democrats have a majority in the senate of 3 and in the house of representatives of 11.

WISCONSIN ELECTS.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., Nov. 9.—Mr. H. C. Payne, ex-chairman of the Republican State central committee, practically concedes Wisconsin to the Democrats. In an interview this morning he said that, while the returns were not complete, if the same percentage of Democratic gain is maintained in the northern counties not yet heard from Mr. Spooner will unquestionably be defeated, together with the entire State ticket. He admitted the victory for Cleveland.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Wisconsin's Democratic chairman, Wall, says Cleveland and Peck are elected by about 10,000. Returns are incomplete but will not make any material difference in the result.

WYOMING SWEET COLORADO.

DENVER, COL., Nov. 9.—Weaver has swept Colorado by one end to the other. His plurality will be nearly 10,000. Waite, the Populist candidate for Governor, is apparently elected. The congressional delegates will undoubtedly be Pence and Bell (Populists).

New Mexico elects the Democratic ticket, except Caleron (Rep.), who is elected to Congress at large.

Wyoming the Republicans have carried the day, and in Idaho the Populists claim the State.

NEW JERSEY GOES DEMOCRATIC.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 9.—The indications to-night are that Cleveland has carried New Jersey by 7,000, and that Wertz (Dem.), for Governor, has been elected by a plurality of 4,000. The next Legislature will stand as follows: Senate—Republicans, 4; Democrats, 17. House—Democrats, 56; Republicans, 25. For Congress the Republicans have carried the First and Second districts and possibly the Eighth. The returns from the latter district are still incomplete.

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA, NEV., Nov. 9.—3 P. M.—At this hour Weaver's plurality in the State is indicated to be 3,000. The Democratic and Republican vote was light.

CARSON, NEV., Nov. 9.—The Weaver electors carry the State by an estimated majority of 1,500. P. G. Newlands, silver nominee for Congress, has a majority of 1,000 over Woodburn (Rep.). The silver or Stewart legislative ticket carries nearly every county in the State.

MIHIG N.

DETROIT, MICH., Nov. 9.—The latest reports show that Harrison electors have been elected in the western district at large; also in First, Second, Seventh, Eighth and Tenth electoral districts.

DETROIT, MICH., Nov. 9.—The Republicans carried 8 out of 14 electoral districts. The Legislature will probably be composed as follows: Senate—Republicans, 15; Democrats and Populists, 14. House—Republicans, 48; Democrats and Populists, 52.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 9.—Returns are in from every section of the State, and do not change the figures. The official majority will not be made until the meeting of the Legislature, but the following figures are very nearly correct: Cleveland electors, 60,000; Harrison, 20,000; Weaver, 2,000. Cleveland's plurality, 40,000.

HARRISON CARRIES IOWA.

DES MOINES, IA., Nov. 9.—Returns now coming in rapidly increase Harrison's plurality to 20,000. Anti-Prohibition Republicans have returned to the party, showing enormous losses everywhere.

DES MOINES, IA., Nov. 9.—The Leader (Dem.) says Iowa is Republican by a small plurality; congressmen saved.

DES MOINES, IA., Nov. 9.—Returns so far received indicate a Republican plurality of 22,000 in Iowa on electors.

ALABAMA.

MOBILE, ALA., Nov. 9.—Richard H. Clarke (Dem.) is re-elected to Congress from the First Alabama district by about 4,500 plurality.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Nov. 9.—Alabama has solid Democratic congressional delegation with the exception of Cobb, of the Fifth district, whose election is still doubtful.

ARKANSAS.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Nov. 9.—It is estimated that Cleveland's majority in Alabama will exceed 30,000. The Democrats have elected all their nine congressmen.

OREGON.

PORTLAND, ORE., Nov. 9.—Two hundred and fifty-three out of 645 precincts give Harrison 22,127; Cleveland, 5,708; Weaver, 15,208.

WASHINGTON.

SEATTLE, WASH., Nov. 9.—One hundred and sixteen out of 357 precincts give Harrison 5,431; Cleveland, 4,755; Weaver, 3,034.

HOGG RE-ELECTED IN TEXAS.

DALLAS, TEXAS, Nov. 9.—Texas has elected Hogg Governor by a small plurality.

NORTH DAKOTA.

SIOUX FALLS, N. D., Nov. 9.—Returns are very slow. The outlook is that Weaver has carried the State by 1,000 majority, and Sheldon (Republican) is elected Governor.

THE VOTE BY STATES.

HOW THE SENATE WILL STAND.

Indication Point to the Balance of Power Being in the Hands of Populists.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Indications point to the balance of power in the United States Senate being in the hands of Populists for Farmers' Alliance.

The Farmers' Alliance appears to have gained control of the Legislature on joint ballot in four States, which are now represented by Republicans in the upper house. The Populists claim to be able to elect three new senators. This will change the standing of the different parties in the Senate from 47 Republicans and 7 Fusionists or Farmers' Alliance to 43 Democrats, 10 Republicans and 5 Farmers' Alliance.

Complete returns on the vote for members of the Legislature of several of the North Western States are not to be had, but the Farmers' Alliance appears to have a sufficient number of these States to give them the balance of power.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Next Congress Will Contain 254 Democrats, 123 Rep. Union, 7 Populists.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Additional returns received here indicate that the House of Representatives in the Fifty-third Congress will contain as the result of yesterday's election 254 Democrats, 123 Republicans and 7 Fusionists or Farmers' Alliance. Rhode Island failed to elect either candidate for representative, but the possibilities favor the choice of two Republicans. This would make the total opposition vote in the House 132 and the Democratic majority 122, a loss of 66.

WHAT OUR CHAIRMAN SAYS.

Mr. Harrity Explains the Great Democratic Avalanche.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—William F. Harrity, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, being asked for some expression regarding the cause of the election of Cleveland and Stevenson, said: "At the close of last week I stated my opinion that the people of the United States were with the Democratic party upon the issue of the tariff, and recorded my opinion that a verdict on election day would be rendered in accordance with that sentiment. The leading issues of the contest, from the first to the last, have been the tariff and the Force bill. As to the former, there has been a universal Democratic gain through the campaign of education, which had its origin in President Cleveland's tariff message of December, 1887. On the question of the domination of the Federal force at the polls in elections held under our State laws, the issue, strong and clear, since the Minneapolis convention, was more sharply abused by the tariff attack than the authority of the United States for partisan ends, which was so forcibly brought to the minds of citizens of New York. Concerning the demand for sound and stable currency, as formulated in the letters of Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Stevenson, the country seemed to have made up its mind some time ago so decidedly as to justify the prediction that not less than 244 of the electoral votes would be cast for the Democratic nominees.

"I have during my experience in politics been reluctant to prophesy, but it is my good fortune that the few positive predictions I have made have been fulfilled. I am, therefore, naturally gratified at finding that the electoral vote has equalled the estimate of 244 votes I made, and that it includes all the States specified in making up that total. The Democratic current has reached, not only the States of the South, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan, but has added to them at least the great State of Illinois, with its 24 electoral votes. The movement in the Northwest for relief from excessive public burdens has proved a popular with producers as well as consumers. It has had an indirect effect in the loss of electoral votes to Harrison in favor of fusion movements, as well as a direct one in adding to the Cleveland column. In this way the President and Vice-President chosen yesterday will receive the votes of not less than 258 electors, with probably 1 from Michigan, and possibly 9 from California, which would raise the total number of Democratic electors to 279. Without California Cleveland has a majority of more than 100 votes in the electoral college, backed by a larger majority of the popular vote than any Democratic nominee has received during more than forty years, with one exception.

"General Harrison's electoral vote is the smallest vote given to any candidate of the Democratic party during that period. Of course the members of the Democratic national committee are proud of this result and appreciative of the commendation of their efforts by Mr. Cleveland when notified of his election at a very early hour this morning. We have done our best in a fair and open fight, endeavoring to avoid being made the victims of delusions and never seeking to delude others. We think that some mistakes to which there was great temptation have been avoided, and that some good points have been opportunely made. "We claim no special merit, however, beyond having tried to faithfully serve our party and the public through energetic and harmonious action. Public sentiment in favor of Grover Cleveland and which caused his nomination, spite of formidable opposition within our party elected him over the opposition of our adversaries. Mr. Stevenson has also proved an admirable candidate, and beyond question it is to the appreciating of his merits and efforts by those who know him best that the wonderful success in Illinois is largely due."

WHAT THE LEADERS SAY.

Republicans Can't Account for the Avalanche, But Democrats Can.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Senator Carlisle, of Kentucky, who was in town during the election, was jubilant to-day. When asked how he accounted for the defeat of President Harrison he replied: "It was simply a protest against protection, the Force bill and the policy of the Republican party. I am really surprised over the overwhelming Democratic victory. It was one of the greatest triumphs the Democracy ever experienced, and I doubt if the Republicans will return to power for many years." The Senator was not inclined to enter into a discussion of details of the result.

Congressman Miliken, of Maine, was too disheartened over the defeat of the President to tell what he thought as to the cause of the Democratic avalanche. The Republican politicians were all profoundly depressed, and their Democratic rivals were extremely jubilant over the general result. Both sides were surprised at the big Democratic majority in this county and over Harrison's poor showing above the Harlem river. It is a fact that the Democratic managers were surprised at the result of the election in doubtful States and in those that were supposed to be Republican. The calculations and estimates of prominent politicians on both sides were upset.

Congressman Boutelle, of Maine, said:

"I do not know how to account for it. Possibly it was due to the ignorance of voters who had been led to believe that protection does not benefit them, and that wild-cat currency would be a god-send. They may regret their action. I am all of which are exceedingly close, but claimed by the Republicans in each case. With the electors from these States Harrison and Reid will have 238 sure votes."

John Simpson, of Maine, said:

"Please accept my congratulations on your election."

At Republican headquarters the election of Russell by 1,071 plurality is virtually conceded.

Virginia a Concession.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Republican National Committee at 5 o'clock this afternoon gave out the following bulletin: "From the latest advice received at headquarters, the result of the election for President depends upon the returns from Wisconsin, Illinois, and Indiana, all of which are exceedingly close, but claimed by the Republicans in each case. With the electors from these States Harrison and Reid will have 238 sure votes."

John Simpson, of Maine, said:

"Please accept my congratulations on your election."

At Republican headquarters the election of Russell by 1,071 plurality is virtually conceded.

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 9.—The Seventh congressional district is conceded to Jerry Simpson, Fusionist, by about 70 majority.

The Westmoreland.

For the last two nights the Westmoreland Club has been the scene of great enjoyment and good fellowship.

Its members and guests have received the election news over their private wires. Everyone was in good humor, and no more pleasant evenings have ever been spent by the members of this club.

A feature of these gatherings was music rendered by a good band, which cheered the visitors with patriotic and popular songs.

The club, true to its reputation for hospitality, extended a hearty welcome and invitation to luncheon to its guests. Among the visitors were the Rev. Moses D. Hore, D. D., United States Senator John W. Daniel, Hon. S. S. P. Patterson and Hon. Thomas B. Martin.
